

Singin' in the Rain...
The Great Gatsby, Chapter 5

I. Go through this chapter and note references to the weather. Look specifically for rainy and sunny references and write the quotes underneath the appropriate weather symbol. Also write down what is happening in the plot and the emotions of the characters at the point of each mention of weather.

II. Synthesis: How does Fitzgerald use the weather in this chapter?

Even though the weather changes back and forth, it continues to be iffy weather throughout the entire chapter. Based on your previous answer, what might this symbolize?
